College of Education Strategic Plan

• Provide transformational learning experiences to prepare the next generation of leaders, researchers, and change agents.

• Be leaders in research that informs socially just practice and programs.

• Create a diverse and inclusive community of learners, educators, and change agents.

• Engage communities through research, outreach and partnerships to advance learning and sharing knowledge.
Academic Programs in Education

College of Education

PhD/EdD Adult & Higher Education Options
Community College Leadership Leadership in Higher Education (Hybrid Ecampus)

Masters in Education
Workplace, Adult, and Community Education (Hybrid Ecampus)

PhD/EdD Education Options
Science/Math Education
Agricultural Education
Language, Equity & Educational Policy

Masters in Education Options
ESOL
Social Justice
STEM (Ecampus)

Education/Teaching

Cascades Campus

Master of Arts in Teaching
Elementary & Secondary

PhD Counseling (Hybrid Ecampus)

Counseling

Counseling Masters Options
School Counseling (Ecampus)

Counseling Masters Options
School Counseling Clinical Mental Health

Master of Science in Teaching
Beaverton Partnership

Undergraduate Double Degree
Elementary & Secondary

Science/Math Teacher Licensure
Integration with Campus
Undergraduate – Double Degree Professional Licensure

- Liberal Arts
- Science
- Engineering
- Business
- PHHS
- Ag Science
- CEOAS
- Forestry

Education
Integration with Campus Graduate Professional Licensure

- Liberal Arts
  - Music Education
- Science
  - Science & Math Education
- Education
  - Physical Education
  - Agriculture Education
- PHHS
- Ag Science
Collaboration & Research

Families Involved in Education
Sociocultural Teaching and STEM

FIESTAS

SYNERGIES in the Parkrose Community