“Education is the key to a better life.”

Governor Kate Brown (12-14-15)

http://whitebreadandjam.blogspot.com/2012/05/hiking-in-oregon-mcdonald-dunn-forest.html
Modern universities are grounded in research.
SP 3.0 mandate: Demonstrate leadership in research

- Advance the Science of Sustainable Earth Ecosystems
- Improve Human Health and Wellness
- Promote Economic Growth and Social Progress
Oregon State’s research awards show pronounced growth.
Award Lifecycle

- Single investigator
- NSF unsolicited proposal

1 - 12 months
- Closeout and Audit

36 months
- Post-Award Administration

1 - 2 weeks
- Award Set-up

1 - 6 months
- Compliance Review (e.g., IRB, IACUC)

Annual solicitation
- Proposal and Budget Development

6 – 12 months
- Proposal Routing and Approval

6 - 12 months
- Award Review and Acceptance

1 - 12 months
- Identify Funding

2 weeks
- Award Lifecycle
Award Lifecycle

- Multiple investigator
- Multiple institutions
- International activity

- Identify Funding: 2 - 5 years
- Proposal and Budget Development: 1 - 2 years
- Proposal Routing and Approval: 1 month
- Award Review and Acceptance: 6 - 12 months
- Award Set-up: 2 months
- Compliance Review (e.g., IRB, IACUC): 1 month
- Closeout and Audit: 5 - 6 years
- Post-Award Administration: 1 - 5 years
Award Lifecycle

47% F&A

$37.6M

Licensing Revenue

$10.3M

Proposed and Budget Development

Proposal Routing and Approval

Award Review and Acceptance

Compliance Review (e.g., IRB, IACUC)

Post-Award Administration

Closeout and Audit

Industry Contracts

$7.2M
Uptick in innovation

58 COMPANIES LAUNCHED, 735 NEW JOBS CREATED

235 PATENTS FILED (113 ISSUED) 2012 - 14
OSU research makes a difference:
for people, for the economy, for the environment
Advancing OSU’s Research Enterprise

Strategic investments
Getting it right.

Every dam day.