

Oct. 8, 2025

Oregon State Board of Trustees' committee to meet to consider appointment of chief executive of audit, risk and compliance

By Sean Nealon, 541-737-0787, sean.nealon@oregonstate.edu

This news release is available online: <https://beav.es/x6v>

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Oregon State University's Board of Trustees will hold a special virtual meeting of its Executive, Audit and Governance Committee at 8:30 a.m. Oct. 10 on Zoom to consider the appointment of the university's next chief executive of audit, risk and compliance.

The candidate under consideration for appointment will be introduced publicly at the meeting. If appointed, the candidate will succeed Interim Chief Executive of Audit, Risk and Compliance Julee Otter.

The meeting is open to the public. The agenda and materials are posted as they become available on the board's website, along with instructions on how to view the meeting remotely.

Accommodation requests related to a disability should be made by noon Oct. 9 to trustees@oregonstate.edu or Stacy Jeffries at 541-737-3449.

-30-

About Oregon State University: As one of only three universities in the nation designated as a land, sea, space and sun grant institution, Oregon State serves Oregon and the world by working on today's most pressing issues. Our nearly 38,000 students come from across the globe, and our programs operate in every Oregon county. Oregon State receives more research funding than all of the state's comprehensive public universities combined. At our campuses in Corvallis and Bend, marine research center in Newport and top-ranked Ecampus online degree programs, we excel at shaping today's students into tomorrow's leaders.