

RESOLUTION NO. 17-04

Oregon State University Board of Trustees
Statement of Mission, Principles & Core Values

BACKGROUND

On March 13, 2014, the Board of Trustees formally adopted the mission, vision, and goals for the university. As it has gained experience over the last two years, the Board has recognized the need for its own statement of principles and core values to serve as the foundation for its deliberations and actions. The principles and core values developed by the Board link to the mission and build on values articulated by the university during its strategic planning efforts. Combined, this Board of Trustees Statement of Mission, Principles & Core Values will guide the Board's actions and serve as underpinnings for how it conducts itself and its business.

RESOLUTION

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Board of Trustees that the Board of Trustees Statement of Mission, Principles & Core Values, attached as Exhibit A, is adopted.

This Resolution is effective upon approval by the Board of Trustees.

APPROVED by the Board of Trustees April 21, 2017

Secretary of the Board

4/21/2017
Date

Oregon State University Board of Trustees Statement of Mission, Principles & Core Values

Preamble

In its governance, the Board of Trustees' policies, practices and decision-making shall be informed by the university's mission, principles and core values. As trustees, we are committed to upholding the mission, principles and values for the benefit of the people of Oregon and the students, faculty and staff of the university.

Oregon State University Mission:

As a land grant institution committed to teaching, research and outreach and engagement, Oregon State University promotes economic, social, cultural and environmental progress for the benefit of the people of Oregon, the nation, and the world.

This mission is achieved by producing graduates competitive in the global economy, supporting a continuous search for new knowledge and solutions and maintaining a rigorous focus on academic excellence, particularly in the university's three Signature Areas: Advancing the Science of Sustainable Earth Ecosystems, Improving Human Health and Wellness and Promoting Economic Growth and Social Progress.

Principles

The following principles are fundamental to who we are as a Board and how we act:

- We believe higher education is a vital public good that serves the people of Oregon, the nation, and the world.
- We are responsible for the fiscal well-being of Oregon State University.
- We act ethically and with the highest integrity.
- We treat all people with fairness and respect.
- We value inclusive excellence and see diversity as informing our mission, broadening and deepening our understanding, and enriching our lives.

Our principles inform our core values, which guide our deliberations and actions when governing the university.

Core Values

- Achieving the University's Mission
We embrace the university's statewide mission and strive for inclusive excellence in all we do, making decisions after thoughtful and purposeful deliberation and considering the long-term viability of the university. Through shared governance, we realize our commitment to the ideals of higher education.

- Accountability
We ensure that the human, fiscal and physical resources entrusted to the university are used effectively, efficiently, and transparently, both in the present and for the future. We hold ourselves accountable for our actions and conduct our affairs in ways that promote mutual trust and public confidence.
- Diversity
We are a welcoming, caring, and inclusive community, one that strives for equity and equal opportunity; shares fundamental values grounded in justice, civility, respect and collaboration; and nurtures diverse people, ideas and perspectives that inspire creativity and achievement.
- Integrity
We act with the highest level of integrity and serve as a model of ethical governance in all that we do.
- Respect
We treat each other with kindness, courtesy and dignity. We are fair in our actions, preserve the dignity of others and honor their differences.
- Social Responsibility
We contribute to society's intellectual, cultural and economic progress and well-being and foster social justice, economic vitality and environmental health.