This news release is available online:

CORVALLIS, Ore. – The Oregon State University Board of Trustees will meet virtually from 1 to 2:30 p.m. March 7 to consider the vice chair position and potential candidates to recommend for appointment by Gov. Tina Kotek for anticipated at-large vacancies on the board.

The meeting is open to the public by Zoom webinar. The webinar link and instructions for providing public comment in writing or virtually during a testimony period before the board votes on each action item are located on the board's website here. The meeting agenda and materials will be posted to the same site as they are available.

Accommodation requests related to a disability should be made by noon March 3 to trustees@oregonstate.edu or Stacy Jeffries at 541-737-3449.

About Oregon State University: As one of only three universities in the nation designated as a land, sea, space and sun grant institution, Oregon State serves Oregon and the world by working on today's most pressing issues. Our more than 35,000 students come from across the globe, and our programs operate in every Oregon county. Oregon State receives more research funding than all of the state's comprehensive public universities combined. At our campuses in Corvallis and Bend, marine research center in Newport and top-ranked Ecampus online degree programs, we excel at shaping today's students into tomorrow's leaders.

On-campus TV and radio services: Oregon State University is equipped with on-campus television and radio studios/services that can be used by journalists. Live or live-to-tape broadcast television and radio interviews can be conducted using Vyvx, Zoom, Webex or Comrex (IP Audio). Oregon State staff can also gather b-roll and coordinate live-to-tape interviews on locations throughout campus. For radio, Oregon State's Comrex (IP Audio) provides a broadcast-quality audio feed.
