

2021 Undergraduate Student Success Summit

Innovating and Ensuring Student Success in Challenging Times

Agenda

1:00pm: Summit begins

- Participants are encouraged to use “Speaker View” within Zoom during the first hour

1:00pm - 1:10pm: Dr. Alix Gitelman – Vice Provost, Undergraduate Education

- Introductory remarks and thoughts on moving forward in the face of multiple challenges

1:10pm - 1:30pm: Dr. Regan A.R. Gurung - Professor of Psychology & Executive Director, CTL

- Teaching Innovations, Peer Supporters, and more

1:30 - 1:50pm: Dr. Janet Nishihara, Executive Director of EOP & Caitlin McVay, Coordinator, Beaver Connect

- Beaver Connect (formerly the Faculty-Student Mentor Program) – Efforts, Impacts, & Recent Adaptations

1:50pm - 2:00pm: approximately ten-minute break (please stay connected to Zoom)

2:00pm - 2:50pm: Thematic, open discussion, breakout rooms (each group will have a guide and thematic note taker).

- Participant video and audio will be turned on by the Zoom host
- Participants are encouraged to switch to “Gallery View” within Zoom during the second hour
- Participants are encouraged to join their discussion of choice
 - Breakout Room options:
 - Supporting Student Mental Health
 - Supporting Faculty/Staff Mental Health
 - Student Success and Access Innovations from AY 2020 That Should Continue
 - Technology Adaptations or Solutions
 - Inclusivity in the Classroom/Campus Engagement

~2:50pm: Breakout rooms close.

- Follow up information and session captures will be available on the Undergraduate Education website in the days following the event