

Oregon State
University

President Transition Committee Report October 16, 2020

Year-One Engagement

Transition Priorities

- Prepare President Alexander for immediate and long-term success at Oregon State University.
- Establish relationships between President Alexander and students, staff, faculty, and key stakeholders.
- Support President Alexander's strategic management and leadership priorities.
- Build on the momentum and excitement of a new presidency to advance recognition and support for Oregon State University's mission.

Fall Term Engagements

“First 100 Days” Highlights

- Greeting students and families during residence hall move-in
- Touring the cultural resource centers and meeting with staff and student leaders
- Holding virtual visits with academic colleges
- Touring the OSU-Cascades campus and meeting with students, staff, and faculty
- Speaking with leaders of the Nine Tribes of Oregon
- Learning about agriculture in Oregon
- Holding a town hall to share OSU’s legislative priorities

October – December Priorities

- Continuing to engage with students, staff, and faculty
- Strengthening focus on diversity, equity, and inclusion
- Building relationships with
  - Business leaders, corporate partners, community leaders
  - PreK through postsecondary educational leaders
  - Extension and stakeholders throughout the state