

Title IX Gender-based Violence Prevention, Support and Response

Oregon State
University

2016-17 Priorities

- Deliver effective prevention, outreach, and training programs
- Update policies and processes
- Conduct a Sexual Violence Climate Assessment

Training Programs

- Haven and HavenPlus
- Bystander Intervention
- Summit on Violence Prevention and Response
- Responsible Employees

Greek Life/Athletics

Policies and Processes

- Significant revision of the Student Code of Conduct
- Significant revision of the Sexual Misconduct and Discrimination Policy (for all campus constituents)
- Improved, Documented and Publicized an Investigation and Resolution Process (for students)

Sexual Violence Climate Assessment

Campus Climate

70% stated that the institution would “likely” or “very likely” take their report seriously.

80% stated that it would be “likely” or “very likely” that the institution would maintain the privacy of the person making the report.

Consent

95% “disagreed” or “strongly disagreed” that consent for sex one time is consent for future sex.

Reporting

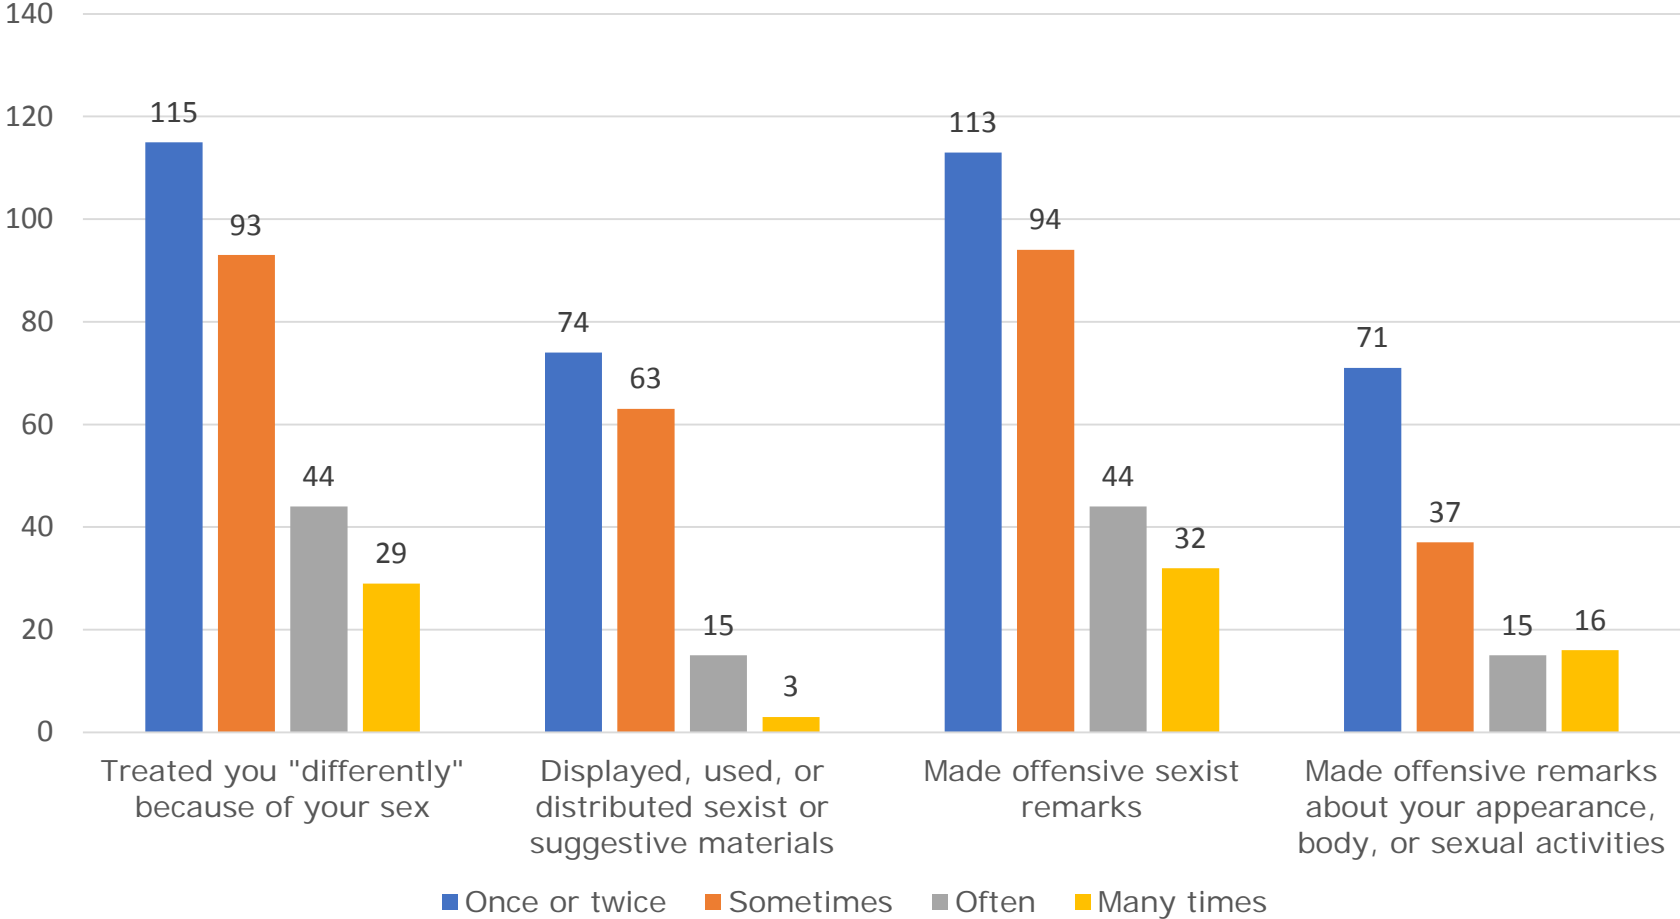

Of those who had experienced an incident of stalking, dating violence, or sexual violence, 63.9% had not told anyone about the incident prior to the survey.

Safety

84% “agreed” or “strongly agreed” that they felt safe on campus at OSU.

Climate Assessment, continued

Experienced the following from other students

2017-18 Priorities

- Institute Greek Life enhancements
- Implement Critical Employee Training
- Finalize Improvements to Investigation and Resolution Process (for employees)